

PACE: Promoting Action in Children's Education

Three Rivers Education Foundation and Bloomfield Public Schools

---

TEACHING THROUGH ACTIVE LEARNING

3-day workshop on using student movement to teach Language Arts, Mathematics, Science, and Social Studies

Students who are active are more ready to learn complex topics.
Instruction that incorporates physical activity is more engaging to students.

HAVE FUN — LEARN NEW STRATEGIES — GET PAID

3 days (paid!) for learning about active learning instruction and for developing a set of sample lesson plans that teach content through physical activity

Dates/Place: June 5–7, 2017 @ Bloomfield Public Schools District Office

Who: ELEMENTARY TEACHERS
Enrollment is limited to 18 teachers (We may make selections to ensure two teachers per school, if more than 18 teachers sign up.)

What to expect:
Participate in lots of fun active learning activities; Work with a colleague on lesson planning; Get funding for instructional supplies; Present your lessons and participate in other teachers' sample lessons
HAVE FUN and EARN $150/DAY

Apply by May 25 at <http://PACE.3RiversEd.org>

Questions? Contact David Bowman, PACE project director
dbowman@3RiversEd.org or 505-603-3411